THE CLASSICAL WEEKLY is published by The Classical Association of the Atlantic States, weekly, on Saturdays, from October to May inclusive, except in weeks in which there is a legal or school holiday, at Teachers College, 525 West 120th Street, New York City.

All persons within the territory of the Association who are interested in the language, the literature, the life and the art of ancient Greece and ancient Rome, whether actually engaged in teaching the Classics or not, are eligible to membership in the Association. Application for membership may be made to the Secretary-Treasurer, Charles Knapp, Barnard College, New York. The annual dues (which cover also the subscription to THE CLASSICAL WEEKLY), are two dollars. Within the territory covered by the Association (New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia) subscription is possible to individuals only through membership. To institutions in this territory the subscription price is one dollar per year.

Outside the territory of the Association the subscription price of The Classical Weekly is one dollar per year.

"A Latin Grammar," by PROFESSOR H. E. BURTON, of Dartmouth College, is the best grammar for both secondary schools and colleges on the market to-day:

In it Latin seems more like a living language than in any other grammar.

Its treatment of the formation of words under the separate parts of speech is clear and logical.

It has a most effective method of showing the relative importance of the facts stated.

HALE'S FIRST LATIN BOOK

By WILLIAM GARDNER HALE, Head of the Latin Department, University of Chicago.

Cloth, $1.00

The book treats Latin as a living, growing, and changing language. It is this point of view that makes it appeal so strongly to the interest of the pupils. A knowledge of English Grammar is not taken for granted. Principles which are common to all languages are first presented. The order of the words is the Latin order from the opening sentence. Every new word is used immediately in at least two lessons. This feature of repetition and emphasis is found in no other First Latin Book. Pronouns follow one another in the order of their deviation from the normal type.
